Eileen Soper's Illustrated Worlds brings childhood to life, featuring stunning illustrations of such literary treasures as The Famous Five, The Secret Seven, Alice in Wonderland and many more.

Enter through the Secret Seven Windmill and start solving our mystery by finding clues in the Secret Passage! Lose yourself in the Amazing Mirror Maze, with the Cheshire Cat appearing and disappearing as you make your way through.

Special sound spots allow you to hear poems from Robert Louis Stevenson's "A Child's Garden of Verses". Why not try your hand at pencil portraits in the Arts Activity Room?

Finally, don't miss out on the extensive range of books, toys, music and ginger beer in the Ginger Pop Shop dedicated to the world of Enid Blyton. This truly is a memorable experience for the whole family, so make good use of the coupon below and treat yourself to some good old-fashioned fun.

Located in The Swan just off Poole Quay
(the distinctive green-tiled building next to Poole Pottery)
